THE

PREFACE.

THE Editor had long ago formed a deſign of giving the Public a New Edition of Ecton's Theſaurus; the former ones having become very defective, as well by the exchange of property in private Patronages, as by the improved value of almoſt all the Livings in the kingdom. And, in order to render ſuch a publication as compleat as poſſible, he has ſpared no pains to procure on both theſe points the beſt information that could be had. Many of the Clergy have been applied to, and been ſo good as to favour him with ſatisfactory accounts of the livings in their reſpective neighbourhoods; and he has taken ſuch further advantages as the beſt and lateſt editions have afforded. Yet it was impoſſible, after all his labour, to come at the real value of every living: wherever he has aimed at it, he begs it to be in general underſtood, that it has been his rule to undervalue, rather than to overrate them.

His object has been to compriſe every neceſſary information in as ſhort a compaſs as poſſible; and thereby offer to the public a very uſeful book, within the reach of every man's purchaſe. With this view he has contrived generally to give, in one ſingle line, the value of the living in the King's Book; the real value where it could be aſcertained; the tenths, and the Patron's name or deſcription.

In the firſt column ſtands the valuation in the King's Book: then follows the name of the living, with the name or deſcription of the patron in Italics; and the laſt column ſhews the tenths.

In livings remaining in charge, where their real value can with any degree of preciſion be aſcertained, an aſteriſk is prefixed to the figures in the firſt column; which, ſo diſtinguiſhed, denote, not their valuation in the King's Book, but their real value; and, in ſuch caſe, the tenths, in the laſt column, multiplied by ten, will always ſhew their valuation in the King's Book.

The figures in the firſt column, with the aſteriſk prefixt, ſhew the real value: V. following NORTHALL, denotes it to be a vicarage, as R. denotes a rectory: The Biſhop ſignifies the Biſhop of the dioceſe: and the figures (1 10·0) in the laſt column, ſhew the tenths; which multiplied by ten, demonſtrate alſo the value in the King's Book, viz. 15l. — So likewiſe the tenths of the livings, diſcharged from firſt fruits, multiplied by ten, will ſhew the value of thoſe livings, as they ſtood in the King's Book before the Act of Parliament for their diſcharge.

All the Deanries are in the gift of the King; except the two Welch ones, of Bangor and St. Aſaph, which are in the Patronage of the reſpective Biſhops: and all the Chancellorſhips and Archdeaconries are in the Patronage of the reſpective Biſhops: and ſo likewiſe are the Prebends; except as noted in the account of Dignities in the gift of the Crown, and elſewhere. Thus of the twelve Prebends in the Church of Canterbury, three only are in the gift of the Archbiſhop, the reſt are in the gift of the Crown.

Of the Crown preferments, whether dignities or livings, all, not exceeding 20l. per ann. in the King's King's Book, are in the diſpoſal of the Lord Chancellor: all above that value are diſpoſed of by the Miniſter.

Such donatives, chapels, and perpetual curacies, as have ſtipends annexed to them, to the value of 10l. a year, and are not in the gift of the rector or vicar of the pariſh to which they reſpectively appertain, the reader will find duly inſerted: but all beneath that value are deemed not worth inſerting; and the patronage of thoſe, which are in the gift of the reſpective rectors or vicars, is conceived to be too well known by all that can be intereſted in them, to require inſertion.

All the hoſpitals, abbies, chanteries, and other places, which by former acts of parliament have been diſſolved, or by judgment of the Court of Exchequer exonerated, being of no other uſe, in this place, than to ſwell the expence of the book, are purpoſely omitted; and great care is taken that all that is of uſe ſhould be here ſet down in its proper place, and that ſuch (and ſuch only) as is of no uſe ſhall be omitted.

There are added at the end of the book ſome precedents, ſuch as are conceived to be of frequent uſe to the Clergy; together with ſome other hints and directions in matters (wherein the younger Clergy, who, by reaſon of their ſtudies of a different nature, and want of experience, are obſerved to be moſt at a loſs) collected from the ſtatutes to which they refer, and made as ſhort and intelligible as the nature of them will admit; purpoſely added to ſave them the great trouble of ſearching all the ſtatutes relating to thoſe matters, and to prevent their being miſled by the wrong informations they may poſſibly meet with by conſulting ignorant people.

And to render this publication more compleat than any thing of the kind, the Editor has thrown in other articles of information, which are ſo intimately connected with clerical concerns, that no beneficed Clergyman ought to be without them.

At the end is a copious and accurate Index of all the livings in England and Wales; with reference to the reſpective pages, where the accounts and deſcription of them are to be found in the firſt part of the work.

The difference between the ancient and modern way of writing and ſpelling the names of places may create the appearance of error, which, in every caſe that can offer, is eaſily rectified: for the livings being ranged in their proper deanries, though in ſome few inſtances they may be differently ſpelled, cannot be eaſily miſtaken.

In the Edition of Ecton, which, in the arrangement of the dioceſes and deanries, has in this publi-publication been followed, the Latin names of the dioceſes and counties were adopted; which, as a matter of no conſequence, have by the preſent editor been retained.

That if you ſhall reject any perſon, who applies for holy orders, upon the account of immorality proved againſt him, you ſignify the name of the perſon ſo rejected, with the reaſon of your rejecting him, to me within one month; that ſo I may acquaint the reſt of my ſuffragans with the caſe of ſuch rejected perſon before the next ordination.

III. That you admit not any perſon to holy orders, who having reſided any conſiderable time out of the univerſity does not ſend to you, with his teſtimonial, a certificate ſigned by the miniſter, and other credible inhabitants of the pariſh where he ſo reſided, expreſſing that notice was given in the church, in time of divine ſervice on ſome Sunday, at leaſt a month before the day of ordination, of his intention to offer himſelf to you to be ordained at ſuch a time: and that, upon ſuch notice given, no objections have come to their knowledge for the which he ought not to be ordained.

IV. That you admit no letters teſtimonial, on any occaſion whatever, unleſs it be therein expreſſed, for what particular end and design, such letters are granted; nor unless it be declared, by those who shall sign them, that they have personally known the life and behaviour of the person for the time by them certified; and do believe in their conscience, that he is qualified for that order, office, or employment, to which he desires to be admitted.

V. That in all testimonials sent from any college or hall, in either of the universities, you expect that they be signed, as well as sealed; and that among the persons signing, the governor of such college or hall, or in his absence, the next person under such governor, with the dean, or reader of divinity, and the tutor of the person to whom the testimonial is granted (such tutor being in the college, and such person being under the degree of master of arts), do subscribe their names.

VI. That you admit not any person to holy orders upon letters dimissory, unless they are granted by the bishop himself, or guardian of the spiritualities, sede vacante; nor unless it be expressed in such letters, that he, who grants them, has fully satisfied himself of the title, and conversation of the person, to whom the letter is granted.

VII. That you make diligent inquiry concerning curates in your diocese, and proceed to ecclesiastical censures against those, who shall presume to serve cures without being first duly licensed thereto; as also against all incumbents who shall receive and employ them, without first obtaining such licence.

VIII. That you do not by any means admit of any minister, who removes from another diocese, to serve as a curate in yours, without the testimony in writing of the bishop of that diocese, or ordinary of the peculiar jurisdiction, from whence he comes, of his good life, ability, and conformity to the ecclesiastical laws of the Church of England.

IX. That you do not allow any minister to serve more than one church or chapel, in one day, except that chapel be a member of the parish church, or united thereunto; and unless the said church or chapel, where such minister shall serve in two places, be not able, in your judgment, to maintain a curate.

X. That in the instrument of licence granted to any curate, you appoint him, what shall appear to you, upon due consideration of the duty to be performed by him, the value of the benefice, and the other circumstances of the case, a sufficient salary, according to the power vested in you by the laws of the church, and the particular direction of the act of parliament for the better maintenance of curates.

XI. That you take care, as much as is possible, that whosoever is admitted to serve any cure, do reside in the parish where he is to serve; ſerve; eſpecially in livings that are able to ſupport a reſident curate: and where that cannot be done, that he do at leaſt reſide ſo near to the place, that he may conveniently perform all the duties both in the church and pariſh.

XII. That you be very cautious in accepting reſignations; and endeavour with the utmoſt care, by every legal method, to guard againſt corrupt and ſimoniacal preſentations to benefices.

XIII. That you require your clergy to wear their proper habits, preſerving always an evident and decent diſtinction from the laity in their apparel; and to ſhew in their whole behaviour, that ſeriouſneſs, gravity, and prudence, which becomes their function; abſtaining from all unſuitable company and diverſions.

DIRECTIONS

DIRECTIONS, RELATIVE TO INSTITUTION, CONCERNING CERTAIN NECESSARY ACTS BEFORE AND AFTER IT.

A CLERK, having a presentation to a benefice, must tender it to the bishop of the diocese, or other ordinary having episcopal jurisdiction, where that benefice is situated: he must then produce to the bishop or ordinary his letters of orders, and a testimonial of his good life and conversation (signed and sealed by three at least of his neighbours of the clergy where he has lived) for the space of three years before the date of his presentation, if he has been so long in priests orders; or, if he has not been so long a priest, for the time since he has been ordained priest. Then he must offer himself to subscribe the 39 articles of religion, which must be done in the presence of the ordinary, and also the two other articles, canon 36, relating to the King's supremacy, and lawful use of the common prayer, and must also subscribe that part of the declaration required by the act of uniformity, 14 Caroli II. cap. 4. viz. "I "will conform to the liturgy of the church of England, as it is "now by law established." Upon the performance of which he receives a certificate under the hand and seal of the bishop.

Before institution he must take the oath required by the statute 1 King William and Queen Mary, cap. 8. And then the oath against simony, and the oath of canonical obedience; and, if he be to be instituted to a vicarage, the oath of residence. Then follows the institution by which the church becomes full, and by it the incumbent has the cure of souls committed to him, and he may enter upon the glebe by virtue thereof. After this succeeds the induction, which upon exhibiting the bishop's mandate, the arch-deacon, who either himself, or by a warrant directed to some neighbouring clergyman (which is most usual) is performed after this manner; the person impowered to induct taking the hand of the person to be inducted, lays it on the key of the church (in the church door) or the ring of the door (or if the church be ruinated, 'tis done by laying his hand on the wall, or the fence of the churchyard) and saying "by virtue of this instrument (which he has from the arch-deacon) "I induct you into the real, actual, and corporal possession of the "rectory of N. with all its fruits, members, and appurtenances. Which said, he puts the incumbent into possession of the church; who, when he has tolled a bell comes forth; and the inductor endorses a certificate of such his induction on the warrant of the arch-deacon, attested by those which are present.

By stat. 14. Caroli II. cap. 4. the clerk, within two months after induction, induction, must upon some Sunday read the book of common-prayer (that is to say) the whole service of the church appointed for that day, both for morning and evening service, and likewise declare his assent and consent to the same in these words, "I do "declare my unfeigned assent and consent to all and every thing "contained and prescribed in, and by the book, entituled [the "book of common-prayer and administration of the sacraments, "and other rites and ceremonies of the church, according to the "use of the church of England; together with the psalter or "psalms of David, pointed as they are to be sung or said in "churches, and the form or manner of making, ordaining and "consecrating of bishops, priests and deacons.]

By the statute 13 Eliz. cap. 12. within two months after induction, in the church, whereto the clerk is admitted, he must read the 39 articles, and declare his unfeigned assent and consent thereto in prayer time, viz. sometime before the whole service be ended. He may also at the same time read the certificate he receives from the bishop, and make his declaration in these words following, "I will "conform to the liturgy of the church of England, as it is now "by law established. Which declaration, tho' certified by the bishop to have been made before him, is yet (by the better opinions) thought necessary to be added as a declaration made before the whole congregation, which the bare reading the certificate is not taken to be.

There should be two or three witnesses to the reading of the liturgy, articles, and declaration, who may swear (upon occasion) that he did perform these things; it is therefore necessary that he procure some books of articles, and give them to some intelligent persons who may peruse them at the same time he reads them, and so be able to attest the same when required; and it will be convenient that upon the due performance of these things they sign some such testimonial as the following.

Memorandum, that on Sunday the day of in the year of our Lord 1711. A. B. rector of C. within the diocese of Winton and county of Southampton, did read in his parish church of C. aforesaid, publickly, and solemnly, the morning and evening prayer according to the form prescribed in, and by the book, intituled, "the book of common-prayer, and administration of the "sacraments, and other rites and ceremonies of the church, accor-"ding to the usage of the church of England, together with the "psalter or psalms of David, pointed as they are to be sung or "said in churches; the form or manner of making, ordaining, and "consecrating of bishops, priests and deacons." And immediately after reading of the same, the said A. B. did openly, and publickly, before before the congregation there assembled, declare his unfeigned assent and consent to all things therein contained and prescribed: also that he did publickly, and openly, on the day and year aforesaid, in the time of divine service, read a certificate under the hand and seal of the Right Reverend Father in God J. Lord bishop of Winton; and immediately after the reading thereof, did, in the same place, the congregation being present, read this declaration following, viz. "I will conform to the liturgy of the church of "England, as it is now by law established. And that on the day and year aforesaid, the said A. B. did read the articles of religion commonly called the thirty-nine articles agreed upon in convocation in the year 1632, in his parish church aforesaid, in the time of divine service there, and did declare his unfeigned assent and consent thereto. In witness, &c.

Within three months after taking a benefice the incumbent is to take the abjuration oath in some of the courts at Westminster, or at the quarter-sessions where his benefice is situate.

Some cautious clergymen take the test upon their admission to any benefice; but whether rectors and vicars are within the statute 25 Caroli II. that enjoins it, is a doubt.

RESIGNATION TO A BISHOP.

IN the name of God amen, before you the right reverend father in God, B. by divine permission, lord bishop of C. and credible witnesses here present, I, A. B. vicar of C. in the county of D. and in your lordship's diocese and jurisdiction of F. for certain just and lawful causes me hereunto especially moving, without compulsion, fraud or deceit, do purely, simply, and absolutely resign and give up my said vicarage and parish church of C. with all their rights, members and appurtenances, into your lordship's sacred hands, with all my right, title and possession of, in and to the same; I quit them, and expressly recede from them by these presents,

preſents, humbly praying, that your lordſhip would be graciouſly pleaſed to accept this my reſignation, and to pronounce and declare the vicarage of C. aforeſaid void, and to be void of my perſon, to all intents of law that may follow thereupon, and to decree that an intimation of the ſaid avoidance may be iſſued to the patron thereof.

In witneſs, &c.

Mem. It is to be obſerved, that a reſignation muſt be made to the biſhop or ordinary, and not to the patron, except the church or chapel be a donative exempt, in which caſe it is to be made to the patron, in the preſence of a notary publick and two credible witneſſes. And in caſe of exchange, or permutation of benefices, on account of health, or other conveniencies, which the law allows, it will be proper for the parties to reſign before a notary, that their reſpective reſignations may be interpoſed before either of the livings is declared void by the ordinary; becauſe it may be doubted, whether a conditional reſignation be valid or not, if the words purely, ſimply, and abſolutely be omitted; for, by the ſtatute of the 31ſt of Q. Eliz. c. 6, § 8, all corrupt reſignations are ſtrictly prohibited in the following words: "That if any incumbent of any benefice with cure of ſouls, after the end of the ſaid forty days, do, or ſhall corruptly reſign or exchange the ſame, or corruptly take for, or in reſpect of the reſigning or exchanging of the ſame, directly or indirectly, any penſion, ſum of money, or benefit whatſoever; that then as well the giver, as the taker of any ſuch penſion, ſum of money, or other benefit corruptly, ſhall loſe double the value of the ſum ſo given, taken, or had; the one moiety, as well thereof, as of the forfeiture of double value of one year's profit before mentioned, to be to the queen's majeſty, her heirs and ſucceſſors, and the other moiety to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, bill, or information, in any of her majeſty's courts of record, in which no eſſoin, protection or wager of law or privilege, ſhall be admitted or allowed."

III.

RULES AND ORDERS FOR THE AUGMENTATION OF THE SMALL LIVINGS, BY AN APPLICATION OF THE FIRST FRUITS AND TENTHS PAYABLE FROM THE GREAT PREFERMENTS, KNOWN BY THE TITLE OF QUEEN ANN'S BOUNTY.

I. THAT the augmentations, to be made by the ſaid corporation, ſhall be by the way of purchaſe, and not by the way of penſion.

II. That the ſtated ſum, to be allowed to each cure which ſhall be augmented, be 200*l.* to be inveſted in a purchaſe, at the expence of the corporation.

III. That the governors ſhall begin with augmenting thoſe cures that do not exceed the value of 10*l.* per ann. and ſhall augment no other, till thoſe have all received our bounty of 200*l.* except in the caſes, and according to the limitations hereafter named.

IV. That in order to encourage benefactions from others, and thereby the ſooner to compleat the good that was intended by our bounty, the governors may give the ſaid ſum of 200*l.* to cures not exceeding 50*l.* per annum, where any perſon will give the ſame, or a greater ſum, or value in lands or tythes.

V. That the governors ſhall every year, between Chriſtmas and Eaſter, cauſe the account of what money they have to diſtribute that year to be audited; and when they know the ſum, public notice ſhall be given in the Gazette, or ſuch other way as ſhall be judged proper, that they have ſuch a ſum to diſtribute in ſo many ſhares; and that they will be ready to apply thoſe ſhares to ſuch cures as want the ſame, and are by the rules of the corporation qualified to receive them, where any perſons will add the like or greater ſum to it, or the value in lands and tythes, for any ſuch particular cure.

VI. That if ſeveral benefactors offer themſelves, the governors ſhall firſt comply with thoſe that offer the moſt.

VII. Where the ſums offered by other benefactors are equal, the governors ſhall always prefer the poorer living.

VIII. Where the cures to be augmented, are of equal value, and the benefactions offered by others are equal, there they ſhall be preferred that firſt offer.

IX. Provided nevertheleſs, that the preference ſhall be ſo far given to cures not exceeding 10*l.* per annum, that the governors ſhall ſhall not apply above two third parts of the money, they have to diſtribute that year, to cures exceeding that value.

X. Where the governors have expected till Michaelmas what benefactors will offer themſelves, then no more propoſals ſhall be received for that year: but if any money remain after that to be diſpoſed of; in the firſt place, two or more of the cures in the gift of the crown, not exceeding 10*l.* per annum, ſhall be choſen by lot, to be augmented preferably to all others: the preciſe number of theſe to be ſettled by a general court, when an exact liſt of them ſhall be brought in to the governors.

XI. As for what ſhall remain of the money to be diſpoſed of after that, a liſt ſhall be taken of all the cures in the church of England, not exceeding 10*l.* per annum; and ſo many of them be choſen by lot, as there ſhall remain ſums of 200*l.* for their augmentation.

XII. When all the cures not exceeding 10*l.* per annum ſhall be ſo augmented, the governors ſhall then proceed to augment thoſe of greater value, according to ſuch rules as ſhall at any time hereafter be propoſed by them, and approved of by us, our heirs or ſucceſſors, under our or their great ſeal.

XIII. That all charitable gifts, in real or perſonal eſtates, made to the corporation, ſhall be ſtrictly applied, according to the particular direction of the donor or donors thereof, where the donor ſhall give particular direction for the diſpoſition thereof; and where the gift ſhall be generally to the corporation, without any ſuch particular direction, the ſame ſhall be applied as the reſt of the fund or ſtock of the corporation is to be applied.

XIV. That a book ſhall be kept, wherein ſhall be entered all the ſubſcriptions, contributions, gifts, deviſes, or appointments, made or given, of any monies, or of any real or perſonal eſtate whatſoever, to the charity mentioned in the charter, and the names of the donors thereof, with the particulars of the matters ſo given; the ſame book to be kept by the ſecretary of the corporation.

XV. That a memorial of the benefactions and augmentations made to each cure, ſhall, at the charge of the corporation, be ſet up in writing on a ſtone, to be fixed in the church of the cure ſo to be encreaſed, there to remain in perpetual memory thereof.

XVI. When the treaſurer ſhall have received any ſum of money for the uſe of the corporation, he ſhall, at the next general court to be holden after ſuch receipt, lay an account thereof before the governors, who may order and direct the ſame to be placed out for the improvement thereof, upon ſome public fund or other ſecurity, till they have an opportunity of laying it out in proper purchaſes for the augmentation of cures.

XVII. That the treaſurer do account annually before ſuch a committee of the governors, as ſhall be appointed by a general court of the ſaid corporation, who ſhall audit and ſtate the ſame; and the ſaid account ſhall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpoſe, and ſhall be laid before the next general court after ſuch ſtating; the ſame to be there re-examined and determined.

XVIII. The perſons, whoſe cures ſhall be augmented, ſhall pay no manner of fee or gratification to any of the officers or ſervants of this corporation.

Note. If a living of ſmall value be augmented either by lot, or by way of private benefaction, as above, which living by ſuch augmentation is not advanced ſo as to be of the clear yearly value of 50*l.* or upwards; the ſame living is capable of a ſecond augmentation, if 200*l.* more be offered the next year after ſuch augmentation, provided the living after ſuch additional augmentation do not exceed in yearly value fifty pounds.

SUBSTANCE OF THE ACT, PASSED IN THE 17th OF GEORGE III. TO PROMOTE THE RESIDENCE OF THE PAROCHIAL CLERGY, BY MAKING PROVISION FOR THE MORE SPEEDY AND EFFECTUAL BUILDING, REBUILDING, REPAIRING, OR PURCHASING HOUSES, AND OTHER NECESSARY BUILDINGS AND TENEMENTS, FOR THE USE OF THEIR BENEFICES.

THE incumbent of any eccleſiaſtical living, whereon there is no houſe, or a ruinous and decayed one, may borrow money ſufficient to rebuild one; and, with the conſent of the ordinary and patron, as a ſecurity for the money ſo to be borrowed, not exceeding two years neat income and produce of ſuch reſpective living, mortgage the glebe, tithes, &c. for the term of twenty-five years, or till ſuch mortgage money ſhall be paid off.

Every incumbent, who ſhall not reſide twenty weeks in each year upon his living, ſhall annually pay 10*l.* per cent. of the principal, and the intereſt due. And every incumbent paying only 5*l.* per cent. of the principal, muſt produce a certificate of his reſidence under the hands of two rectors, vicars, &c. On failure of payment of principal and intereſt for forty days after due, the mortgagee may diſtrain.

The money borrowed is to be paid to ſuch perſons, as the ordinary, &c. ſhall appoint; who ſhall contract for the buildings, &c. and ſee the ſame executed, and pay for them. And as ſoon as the buildings are completed, the incumbent ſhall, at his own expence, inſure them againſt fire.

And of any living worth 100*l.* per an. which has no proper houſe of habitation upon it, the ordinary may (if the incumbent neglect to make application, &c.) procure an eſtimate, &c. and proceed in the execution of this act, in ſuch manner as the parſon is directed to proceed. And all money received from the repreſentatives of former incumbents for dilapidations, &c. ſhall be applied in part of the payments for the new erections under this act, or in making ſome additional improvements.

Where new buildings are neceſſary for the reſidence of the incumbent, the ordinary, &c. may purchaſe any convenient houſe within one mile of the church; and a certain portion of land: the purchaſe-money of ſuch land to be raiſed by ſale of part of the glebe or tithes of ſuch benefice, or the tranſaction may be ſettled by exchange.

To promote the execution of this act, the governors of Queen Anne's

Ann's bounty are empowered to lend certain ſums: the ſum of 100*l.* to livings, the annual income of which does not exceed 50*l.* per ann. without intereſt: and any ſum, not exceeding two years income of ſuch living, to a benefice, the annual value of which ſhall exceed the ſum of 50*l.* per ann. at the intereſt of 4*l.* per cent.

The colleges of Oxford and Cambridge, and other corporate bodies, being patrons of livings, are empowered to lend any ſums without intereſt, to aid the execution of this act.

☞ The above is the ſubſtance of the act: to which is annexed a ſchedule, containing certain forms of deeds, to which the bill refers: ſuch as,

"Form of the conſent of the ordinary and patron."
"Form of mortgages:" &c.

For which I refer the reader to the act itſelf.

V.

THE NATURE OF TITHES ILLUSTRATED; WHEREIN IS GIVEN A SUCCINCT ACCOUNT OF ALL THINGS TITHABLE, AND THE MANNER OF COLLECTING THEM; AS ALSO OF COMPOSITIONS, CUSTOMS, PRESCRIPTIONS AND PRIVILEGES, DISTINGUISHED UNDER THEIR PROPER HEADS; WITH REFERENCES TO ADJUDGED CASES, AND STATUTES RELATING TO TITHES.

TITHES are a tenth part of the increaſe yearly ariſing from the profits of lands, ſtocks upon lands, and the induſtry of the pariſhioner; payable for the maintenance of the pariſh prieſt, by every one that hath things titheable, if a ſpecial exemption cannot be ſhewn. They were firſt appointed by Moſes to be paid to the ſons of Levi, of all lawful things, as appertaining to GOD.

They are either predial or perſonal.

PREDIAL are thoſe which immediately ariſe from the land, either by manurance, or of its own nature; as grain, hay, wood, fruits, herbs, &c. payable when they ariſe.

PERSONAL are thoſe which ariſe only from the labour and induſtry of man, being the tenth part of his clear gains in his trade or profeſſion; as for mills, or fiſh caught at ſea, payable only by cuſtom.

Theſe

Theſe are ſometimes

MIXT, ſuch as thoſe that ariſe partly from cattle, and other things that receive their nouriſhment immediately from the ground, and partly by induſtry in the management of them; as colts, calves, pigs, wool, lambs, milk, cheeſe, chickens, eggs, &c. payable where they ariſe.

Tithes, with reſpect to their value, are diſtinguiſhed into GREAT, as corn, pulſe, agiſtments, timber, &c. which are generally due to the rector.

SMALL, as ſeeds of flax, millet, leek, onion, &c. Herbs, mint, rue, parſly, cummin, ſaffron, &c. Eggs, fowls, beaſts, fruits, underwoods, for fuelling ſold, &c. which are commonly due to the vicar.

But cuſtom will make a great tithe a ſmall one, and the quantity will turn a ſmall tithe into a great one.

And they are required by

COMPOSITION, TRANSACTION, CUSTOM, PRESCRIPTION, PRIVILEGE.

COMPOSITION holdeth or faileth diverſly. Between clerks themſelves, as tranſlating of tithes from one church to another holdeth good; but theſe muſt be regarded, as

FIRST. Perſonal, which does not hold.

SECOND. Predial, which holdeth with the approbation of the biſhop, and binds the clerk and his ſucceſſors, elſe only the clerk.

THIRD. Compoſition that tithes ſhall be remitted, does not hold; for tithe muſt not be taken away.

FOURTH. Between laymen and clerks. Fore paſſed, this holdeth. To come, that tithes be not paid at all is not to be admitted, if the compoſition be not wholly paid; but in part it holdeth, but muſt be confirmed by ſupreme authority.

TRANSACTION differs from compoſition. Compoſition is a voluntary agreement; tranſaction is forced of things doubtful, and holdeth, though the things are temporal; for the profit of tithes is reputed ſuch, and tranſactions of tithes muſt be reſpected according to the terms.

For a limited time. Which holdeth with the biſhop's approbation.

Or for ever. This holdeth where the intereſt of the church is doubtful; but where the right is clear, it does not, otherwiſe than by conſent of ſupreme authority.

FIRST.

CUSTOM holdeth or faileth many ways.

FIRST. As in tranſlation of tithes predial, it holdeth.

SECOND. If of perſonal tithes, (as is ſaid in compoſitions) it holdeth not.

THIRD. Of not paying tithes at all, it holdeth not.

FOURTH. Of yielding leſs than a tenth it holdeth in perſonal tithes, and in ſome caſes of predial alſo.

FIFTH. Of places where tithes ought to be left, it holdeth.

SIXTH. Of tithes to be yielded, it holdeth.

SEVENTH. In the manner and form of yielding tithes, it holdeth.

PRESCRIPTION is only different from Cuſtom, in this being a right to many, procured in common; whereas Preſcription applies privately to one.

PRIVILEGE, or exemption from tithes, is derived from ſupreme authority to perſons or places, as colleges, manors, parſonages appropriate, &c. diſcharged of tithes by the ſtatute 31 Hen. 8. cap. 13.

Tithes may be conſidered as they ariſe from the lands by ſome annual product.

Not that tithe is due, if the occupier has ſome profit whilſt the ground lies fallow for its improvement. Dyer 170. but if by ill huſbandry, it is otherwiſe. Stat. 2 Ed. 6. Goldſ. 157. Alſo barren lands improved are free from tithes for ſeven years. Stat. 2 Ed. 6. but not land gained from the ſea, 3 Bulſt. 156. nor marſh-lands drained, Moor 430. Yet barren land, during the ſeven years of improvement, pays ſuch tithes as have been accuſtomarily paid before. Wo. Inſt. B. 2. c. 2. A foreſt in the king's hands (tho' in a pariſh) is not tithable, but if in the hands of a ſubject it is, 1 Roll. Abr. 655. 3 Cro. 94.

The Produce of Lands tithable are

ALL HARVEST FRUITS, &c. as Wheat, rye, barley, oats, &c. 1 Sid. 283. 2 Ven. 48. the pariſhioner is to cut it down, and bind in ſheaves. 1 Roll's Abr. 644. Latch. 125. the parſon or his deputy may come and ſee them ſet forth, and muſt take them away, and that in due time, or the parſon may be ſued as a treſpaſſer, and the pariſhioner is not bound to watch them. Noy 31.

Cuttings of green tares for feeding of cattle, &c. grain or corn ſown ſown on headlands, peaſe, and beans eaten in a man's houſe, rakings and ſtubble, are not tithable, 5 Roll. 379.

Where corn has grown and paid tithes the ſame year, the land is not tithable again. 2 Inſt. 652. Hops pay tithe by the pole, and the 10th may be ſet out before they are dryed; but the poles are not tithable. 1 Roll's Abr. 644. Five ſhillings muſt be paid for every acre ſown with hemp or flax, before the ſame be carried off the ground. Stat. 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 16.

Graſs, hay, clover, lucern, cinquefoil, &c. applied to feeding of cattle, are tithable every tenth cock, according to cuſtom of places. Graſs cut for ſuſtenance of cattle, the owner not having ſufficient otherwiſe, is not tithable. 1 Roll's Abr. 644.

THE HERBAGE OF THE FIELD. Cuſtom is, in ſome places to make the graſs into hay for the tithe; in others in graſs cocks or ſwayths only; but then the parſon may make it into hay on the ſame land, and may go over it, and carry away and break down any gate, or incloſure, erected to obſtruct him. Stat. Ed. 6. c. 13. Cuſtom in ſome places is, to meaſure out the tenth part of the graſs, and the parſon to mow it. Hob. 250. After-mowth, or after-paſture, pays no tithes, unleſs by cuſtom. 2 Inſt. 621, 652. 1 Roll's Abr. 640. Cro. Eliz. 660. Moor 910. Poph. 142. Tithes ſhall be paid of graſs growing in orchards. 2 Inſt. 652. Paſturage for beaſts kept for plow and cart, or for pleaſure, pay no tithes. 1 Roll. 646.

AGISTMENTS, or unfructuary profits of lands. Agiſtments, i. e. feeding of cattle upon paſture of lands, &c. Tithes are due if the land pays no other that year. Danv. 600. and the cattle muſt be agiſted for hire or ſale, and not fed for plough, pail or labour, they being otherwiſe profitable to the parſon. Winch. 33. Moor 909. If land is let to a ſtranger by the year, a tenth part of the money is due, Hard. 35. otherwiſe reſpect is to be had to the number of cattle, and their time of feeding. If the owner eats it all with unprofitable cattle, the tenth part of the value of the land is payable; though cuſtom or preſcription may direct other kinds of payment.—Tithes ſhall not be paid for young cattle bred for the plough or pail. Moor 910. If cattle are taken for hire, either the owner or occupier may be ſued. Dan. 614. If tithes are paid for wool, the ſheep ſhall not pay for their herbage. 2 Bulſt. 258.

Oxen or ſteers kept for ſale pay tithes for their paſture, but not weathers, becauſe they render tithe of their wool. Cro. Car. 237.

And if cows yield milk, their paſturage is not tithable. W. Inſt. B. 2. c. 2.

TIMBER-TREES and UNDER-WOODS, with FRUITS. Timber Trees, oak, aſh, elm, &c. are not tithable, nor trees growing in parks, forests, chases; and the branches with the shoots and bark are discharged with the bodies, 1 Co. 49. when they are of 20 years growth; otherwise loppings are tithable. 11 Rep. 48. 2 Inst. 643. Nor fruit-trees, 2 Roll. 83. nor aspin, beech, hazel, holly, willow, maple, &c. where used for building. 45 Ed. 3. c. 32. Dan. 589. But birch is tithable tho' of 20 years growth, because it's not proper for building. 2 Inst. 643 1 Cro. 1.

Old decayed trees, having been once privileged, are exempted from tithes, tho' cut down for fire. 1 Rep. 49, 81. 2 Inst. 643.

Pollards of 50 years growth, when felled, are tithable. 1 Lev. 189. Nurseries are tithable, if the owner pulls them up; but if sold standing, and the vendee pulls them up, he shall pay the tithe. Danv. 585, 614.

Under-woods; tithes are generally due if sold standing, payable by the buyer; if felled, by the seller. 1 Inst. 642. In like manner broom and furze: 1 Dan. 597. But they are not tithable, where used for house-boot, hedge-boot, cart-boot. Goldf. 151. Alders are tithable tho' above 20 years growth, 2 Cro. 199. Fruits from oak, beech, &c. as acorns, mast, if they drop from the tree and swine, eat them, pay no tithe, but if severed for feeding of swine they do. Hetly 27. Or if gathered and sold. 11 Co. 49. 2 Inst. 643. Apples, pears, plumbs, &c. in inclosures, gathered for sale, pay tithes in kind; and if sold on the tree, the vendee must pay the tithe. 2 Inst. 652.

MINES, and what is dug out of the earth. Mines of silver, copper, tin, lead, &c. are not tithable of common right, but in some places custom has allowed them. 2 Inst. 651. Chalk, clay, coals, turf, peat, fuller's earth, &c. are not tithable. 1 Roll. 366. nor stone, brick, tiles, &c. because they are made of the substance of the earth, and no annual increase. 2 Inst. 651. 1 Cro. 1. for it is a rule, where there is no yearly renewing, no tithe is due, 11 Co. 160. No tithe shall be paid for salt, unless by custom. 1 Lev. 179.

GARDEN-HERBS, seeds, roots, &c. Tithes are due for all pot-herbs, saffron, annis, cummin, potatoes, turnips, carrots, parsnips, onions, &c. and of flowers. Hutt. 77. 3 Cro. 20.

EGGS, YOUNG FOWLS, CALVES, LAMBS, PIGS, &c. Tithes of ducklings and geese are usually paid in kind, but of hens and turkies most commonly in their eggs, as custom guides. Moor 599. No tithes of swans, turkies, pheasants, partridges, pigeons, &c. for them or their eggs are due by right, they being wild by nature, unless by custom. 2 Mod. 77. Roll. 458. But if tithe is paid for the young, there shall be none for for the eggs; or if for the eggs, none for the young. No tithe is due for pigeons consumed in a man's house. Roll's Abr. Title Disms, Litt. Rep. 40 Het. 147. But if kept in a dove-house, they are tithable. 1 Vent. 5.

If a person has ten calves, colts, lambs, &c. in one year, tithe is payable; but if he has fewer than ten, none in kind is to be paid that year, except custom warrants it; but in such cases there is usually a rate-tithe, or the parson tarries till next year; they are payable when weanable. Raym. 277. Kids are tithable as calves. W. Inst. b. 2 c. 2.

MILK, BUTTER and CHEESE. Milk is to be paid every tenth meal, and carried either to the vicarage-house or church-porch, according to the custom of the place. Raym. 277. Cheese is only tithable where tithe is not paid for milk, and is due only by custom. W. Inst. b. 2. c. 2. 1 Cro. 609. A number of cheeses may discharge the milk; for no tithe for cheese or butter is due of itself, being made by labour. Moor 909.

WOOL and SKINS. Sheep and lambs are tithable proportionably to the time fed in a parish, to wit, 8 pounds in 80 if a year, 4 for half, 3 if a quarter, and the 12th part if a month, and nothing for less than 30 days. By custom it may be paid at Lammas day, though due at shearing time. Moor 910. If shorne, and they die before Easter following, no tithes are due, 497 Poph. nor for sheep that feed after the corn is reaped. 1 Mod. 216. Shearings of sheep, to preserve them in their walks from brambles and vermine are not tithable. 3 Bulst. 242. If the owner kills his sheep, he must pay tithe for the wool, but not for the skin. Lit. 31. nor of pelts or felts of sheep which die of the rot. Nelf. Abr. 318.

Of BEASTS and FOWLS wild by Nature, and FISH. No tithes are due for deer, hares, conies, wild fowl, nor fish taken out of the sea, but by custom they may. Cro. Car. 192. Noy 108. as of herrings at Yarmouth, Palm. 527. and a custom to pay less than a tenth part may be good. 1 Lev. 179. Sid. 278. 1 Rod. 419. 3 Bulst. 241. Trouts taken in a river adjudged tithable by Stat. 2 Ed. 6. Mich. 15 Car. 3. Nelf. Abr. 311. Fish in ponds and rivers inclosed, are tithable in kind, W. Inst. B. 2. c. 2.

HOUSES. No tithe by right is payable for them, but by custom, except in the city of London, moduses being for what increaseth; now houses decrease, and are inheritances, and it is a rule no tithe shall be paid for inheritances; nor can husbandry be exercised without houses: noblemen's are exempted by Stat. 38 Hen. 8.

MILLS and IMPROVED RENTS. All corn-mills, not erected before Stat. 9 Ed. 2. are tithable, but if before the memory of man, the law presumes them to be before the statute. Yet if one pays tithe for his corn, and after grinds the same at a mill in the same parish, no tithe is to be paid for the meal. 2 Inst. 652. Fulling-mills, tin-mills, plate-mills, rag and paper-mills, are not tithable, because the profit arises by the labour of men. 2 Rol. 84. Modus to pay 2s. in the pound of all the improved rent in lieu of all tithes is not good, because 'tis to rise and fall as the land is let, and the parson may not know it. 2 Salk. 65.

BEES. Honey and wax is tithable by the tenth measure. 3 Cro. 404, 559, W. Jones 447.

PROFITS made by tradesmen, artificers, &c. All these tithes may be included under free-will offerings, though the Stat. 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 13 sect. 7 & 8. says, all persons shall pay their offerings (or tithes which was intended) of honest labour, but not of robbers, usurers, harlots, &c. But all personal tithes are more intricate than profitable, therefore the clergy are advised to desist from contending for them.

V.

THE MATTER OF AGISTMENT TITHE OF UNPROFITABLE STOCK IN THE CASE OF THE VICAR OF HOLBEACH.

IN the original donation by the crown, of the tenths of the produce of the earth to the church, it was undoubtedly intended, that the grazing farm should yield (some way or other) the tenth of its value, in as ample a manner as the tillage; but how this was to be effected, was a difficulty the clergy have long had to encounter. Agistment tithe has been always acknowledged, in argument and in the books, to be due; but never in its full extent specifically complied with.

By the endowment of Holbeach, the bishop of Lincoln is intitled to the tithe of corn, hay, wool, lamb, and flax duntaxat, cætera quæcunque quandocunque quotiescunque accidunt, pertineant ad portionem vicarii.

Upon these general words, cætera quæcunque, &c. the vicar grounded his claim of agistment tithe for all unprofitable stock; which matter was heard and determined in the court of exchequer, Michaelmas term 1768, as per abstract of decree:

"That all the defendants, the occupiers, do account for such "sheep agistment tithe, and also all other agistment tithe for un-

"profitable

" profitable cattle (with coſts), for the whole time ſince the ſaid " vicar's induction (nineteen years), &c. &c."

The defendants were ready to acquieſce in this decree, ſo far as it affected the fat ſheep only; but applied for, and were indulged by the court with a rehearing on that part of it, which materially affects the ſtore-ſheep, in ſending them from one pariſh to another to eat turnips, cole, &c. as it makes them liable to pay an agiſtment tithe as unprofitable animals, from the laſt clipping-day to the day they are taken out of the pariſh, for any purpoſe whatever; and the ſame upon occaſion of every removal. This was much agitated by the defendants council; nevertheleſs the judges remained unſhaken in their opinion, and the decree was confirmed.

The vicarial right to agiſtment tithe of all unprofitable ſtock being by this decree ſufficiently eſtabliſhed, nothing remained to be done, but to aſcertain the value of ſuch tithe.

This matter was ſo totally new, that the parties were ordered to go into a joint-commiſſion to examine witneſſes, in order to produce the value of the agiſtment tithe, from the improvement of the animal, when after ſitting twelve days, and examining ſixteen witneſſes on each ſide, at the expence of two hundred and fifty pounds, the depoſitions were produced before the maſter; and, in a ſhort time, rendered as blank paper, by Mr. Madocks (defendants council) obſerving, " that the vicar's witneſſes, &c. had grounded " their judgment of the value of the land, upon the improvement " of the animal, which was not the object of agiſtment tithe."—So by a wrong bias of the bar, ariſing entirely from the newneſs of the matter, the parties incurred this extraordinary expence.

Fortunate was it for the church, that the improvement of the animal was not the proper object of agiſtment tithe; becauſe, had it been ſo, the benefit ariſing from it would have been uncertain, as depending upon the life of the animal, and the doubt of its having improved at all.

This cloud was ſoon removed by the maſter and council agreeing, " that the true object of agiſtment tithe was the tenth ſhilling " of what the defendant's land is worth, or may be let for in taking " in the cattle of other perſons to jyſt."—And thereupon another commiſſion was ordered, for the parties to examine witneſſes upon this laſt-mentioned principle.

In the midſt of theſe ſeeming uncertainties, and before the above commiſſion was executed, the vicar inſtituted three freſh cauſes in the eccleſiaſtical court at Lincoln, againſt three other pariſhioners of Holbeach, for this agiſtment tithe of all unprofitable ſtock, founded upon the right to ſuch tithe, having been already fully eſtabliſhed by the decree of the court of exchequer, 1768: being of opinion, opinion, "that the value of such tithe would much sooner be come "at by a process in the country, than in Westminster-hall; where, "at that time, the generality of the gentlemen of the long robe "owned an intire ignorance of the matter claimed in particular, "and of the ecclesiastical rights in general, from its not being "worth their study and attention, as they might not have two "causes, to employ or reward their diligence, in thirty or forty "years practice." But the frequency of these claims since 1768, has made the study of these matters more palatable; and there are now many eminent men in the court of exchequer, who shew us every term, that an application to the mystic rights of the church is not near so dry a study as they formerly imagined it.

The expectation of the vicar herein was fully answered; for the proctor in the court at Lincoln expedited these new causes so effectually, that the same witnesses, which the vicar produced on the commission out of the court of exchequer held at Lincoln, 1770, were also examined by the register here in support of the allegation exhibited on behalf of the vicar's claim in the ecclesiastical court.

The witnesses on the part of the vicar, who were most of them graziers and men of large property, upon a view of defendants lands, laid the value of keeping sheep upon those lands for feeding after the last shearing, at threepence, threepencehalfpenny, and fourpence per head a week; and the witnesses, on the part of defendants, who were likewise graziers and men of large property, laid the value of keeping sheep upon defendants lands, for feeding after the last shearing, at five farthings per head a week only; and this uniformly, not one varying a single farthing from the other.

The variation in value in plantiff's witnesses, is very reconcileable to men's different judgments, upon the strictest principles of equity; and defendant's witnesses, when they lay the value of keeping sheep on defendant's lands so low as fivepence per month, must not only be supposed to speak to the keeping of store-sheep, instead of feeding sheep fat for Smithfield market, but must also, in that solemn assertion of so low a value, be directed by some private mode of traffic or bargain, between shepherd and master (which is the frequent practice instead of wages), or it may be thought, that they determined the value in their own minds, from an interchange of stock-keeping one with another; and from these vague principles set up a value unknown to the grazing world before, whether the reader forms his opinion from the prices paid in other parishes, where the land is not half so good as Holbeach lands, or from any calculation that will enable the grazier to maintain his family and pay his rent.

Upon

Upon the return of the commiſſion, the maſter proceeded to make his report; and upon the depoſit ons of the very ſame witneſſes, the judge in the eccleſiaſtical court (after conſulting ſome learned advocates upon the caſe) gave ſentence upon the value of the agiſtment of all unprofitable ſtock; laying the value of feeding ſheep fat for market, after the laſt ſhearing-time, at tenpence per head a month, when the maſter in his report laid the value, in the ſame inſtance, at five-pence per head a month. The incongruity between the two determinations was nearly as great in the other kinds of unprofitable ſtock, ſuch as one, two, three, and four-years-old beaſts; one, two, and three-years-old horſes; only with this diſtinction, that the maſter laid the value of keeping theſe two latter kinds of ſtock much higher than the eccleſiaſtical judge; inſomuch, that this ſummer, in the pariſh of Whaplode, upon drawing up articles of agreement between the vicar and pariſhioners, who had been litigating this matter of agiſtment tithe, &c. in the court of exchequer four or five years, upon the principles of the Holbeach cauſe, it was agreed, amongſt other things, "that the pariſhioners ſhould have "a copy of the maſter's report, and an abſtract of the ſentence of "the eccleſiaſtical judge, in the caſe of the vicar of Holbeach, &c. "laid before them, and ſhould have their choice which they would "be guided by;" when after conſidering both very cloſely, they declared, "they would abide by the direction of the eccleſiaſtical "court." Which mode of agreement was immediately adopted.

The abſtract of the value, as laid in the ſentence in the eccleſiaſtical court, is as follows.

Sheep ſold off fat, - - - - - -	keeping	10d.	per month
Store-ſheep, - - - - - - -	ditto	5d.	per month

through the year, unleſs kept in a ſtraw-yard.—The tenth of theſe articles payable to the church.

Was it poſſible for any given quantity of graſs (intended to be grazed) to be ſet out and ſeparated, as is the caſe in the tenth cock of hay, or ſheaf of corn, there could be no difficulty in pointing out the mode of tithing it; but this being impracticable, on account of its being cropped by the grazing animal, the comparative value of the tithe of agiſtment, and the tithe of hay and corn, can can be produced in no other inſtance but where the occupier of meadow or tillage land compounds with the clergyman at a certain ſum per acre; which certain ſum muſt be aſcertained by the opinions which indifferent perſons may form of what that meadow or tillage land is capable of producing, and what ſuch meadow or ſtanding corn would be worth if ſold to another.—This inſtance is exactly parallel to an occupier of grazing land, letting the eat of his graſs land to his neighbour. In both inſtances the method of coming at the value muſt be the ſame, viz. by depoſitions of knowing perſons on both ſides.

The depoſitions of defendants witneſſes (which are now recorded in the court of exchequer, and in the regiſtry at Lincoln) uniformly agree in fixing the value of agiſting ſheep for fatting on defendants marſh lands in the pariſh of Holbeach, at fivepence per head per month; which lands, at an average, are well worth fifteen ſhillings per acre; and it appears, that two principal graziers, who were produced as witneſſes on the part of defendants in theſe cauſes, have ſolemnly ſworn, "that they knew the marſh lands of "the defendant very well; that they did not produce more than "one load of hay per acre; and that ſuch load of hay was not "worth more than ten ſhillings per load."

The obſervation made even by quaker graziers, upon the fivepence per head per month, for the keep of fatting ſheep, was "that "if they could even have their ſtore-ſheep kept for that ſum, they "would not rent a foot of land. That was the land worth but "half a crown per acre (which could not be the caſe of Holbeach "marſh lands) ſo low a produce as fivepence per head per month "would ſtarve the occupier."

The above ſtatement of the average value of land in the pariſh of Holbeach, and the reſpective valuation of the agiſtment tithe, will mutatis mutandis, conduce quietly and without the trouble of commiſſions, and depoſitions, to ſettle the value of this tithe in every other pariſh.
